ETBALL TILT HLETIC OFFICER Smile Of Confidence  Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, smiles confidently as he makes plans for his team's game with the Pirates at Reynolds, June 27.	PRO BASEBALL GAME BOOKED Pirates To Play Indians At Reynolds June 27 On New Diamond. Camp Reynolds's first big-time baseball game will be played here Tuesday, June 27, when the Pittsburgh Pirates meet the Cleveland Indians. Lt. John J. Berman, Camp Athletic Officer, announced this week. The game was arranged by John H. Halthewood, of Pittsburgh, Bill Benswanger, president of the Pirates, and Roger Peckinpaugh, business manager of the Indians. Both teams will have an off day. The Indians will jump from New York for the exhibition, and they will leave for Philadelphia where they open a three day series with the Athletics. The Pirates will come from Pittsburgh that morning and the following night they will play the New York Giants at Forbes	THREE-GAME SERIES TO DECIDE REYNOLDS Pirate Chief  Managing Frankie Frisch, who manages the Pittsburgh Pirates, is no less confident than his opponents of victory in the big-time baseball game to be played here in June.
